CJW JUNIORETTE CLUBS

A Juniorette Coordinator is appointed by the CJW Director to assist all Juniorette clubs, their presidents and advisors. Juniorette clubs are also members of the individual districts.

The Juniorette Coordinator is responsible for conducting meetings for Juniorette presidents, vice-presidents and advisors. She also coordinates Juniorette Day – an annual meeting of all Junioresses traditionally devoted to the Arts and Crafts Competition. Time should be provided at this meeting for clubs to share ideas, goals, projects and achievements for the past year.

Juniorette clubs are encouraged to work with the clubs in their districts on joint projects, fundraisers and programs. Sharing of newsletters and invitations to each other's meetings, fundraisers and programs provide additional ideas and networking.

CJW DISTRICT INFORMATION

The individual local clubs, who are members of CJW, Inc. are divided into five (5) districts; Charter Oak, Regal Monarchs, Dogwood, Wildbury & S.H.O.R.E. The purpose of districting is to provide clubs with a smaller group of club contacts for interaction with regards to meetings, programs, projects and idea sharing.

A District Rep is appointed from each district by the CJW Director to serve on the CJW Board of Directors. This District Rep acts as a liaison between the clubs in her district and the CJW Board of Directors.

The District Rep also works with the CJW Assistant Director in the area of membership within the district.

The District Rep should hold a minimum of three (3) meetings per year with club presidents and vice presidents in her district. She is also responsible for coordinating District Day - an annual meeting of all the clubs in the district - and is the presiding officer at that meeting. Time should be provided at this annual meeting for clubs to share their achievements, projects and goals from the past year.

District clubs are encouraged to work together on joint projects, fundraisers and programs. Sharing of newsletters and invitations to each other's meetings, fundraisers and programs provide additional ideas and networking.
